STATISTICS QUO

By GREG FULTON

In his book on Defensive Football, the one-time Notre Dame coach, Frank Leahy, stated that the whole purpose of defense is to limit the opposition to fewer points than what your own offense can score. It follows from this brilliant logic that if a team can roll up 50 points itself the defense is working OK if the other club only gets 49. Similarly if your offense can only garner two points the ideal defensive unit won't give away more than a single. The weaker the scoring punch the harder the task of the defensive unit to justify itself according to the Leahy standards.

How do the Stampeders rate in this category? Over the past couple of seasons they have been called a strong defensive club but a trifle weak on the offense. Let's take a look at their season records for the last eleven seasons.

	No. of games	Pts. For	Pts. Against
*1948	15	251	78
*1949	17	307	126
1950	14	152	253
1951	14	205	300
1952	18	331	382
1953	16	190	313
*1954	16	271	165
1955	16	209	299
1956	16	229	410
1957	18	237	441
*1958	16	314	312
Totals	176	2696	3079
Overall average per game		15.3	17.5

You will note that since the gravy years of 1948 and 1949 the Stamps have outscored the enemy over the season only twice. First was in the fabulous 1954 season of Siemering, LeBaron, Macon, Brito, Henke, et al, when they picked up 271 points and allowed only 165 against, the lowest total since 1949, that club could do just about everything but win. The second time was last year when the balance was a slim 314 to 312 in favor of the Douglas Demons. In both years they finished fourth in the final standings.

During 1959 Otis hopes to have all his elevators going up at once with the prospects of a stronger attack giving the defensive boys a greater margin to work with. Maybe this time Calgary will prove to be a strong defensive team more often than in past years. Let's hope so.

Tonight the opposition is provided by the reigning monarchs of Canadian Football, the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Why are they the champs, This one fact could provide the best answer. In four games between the two last year stamps were outscored 96-37 and the highest point total garnered by Calgary in any one game was 11 in that Labour Day thriller won by the Stamps 11-3, their first victory over Winnipeg since 1956. Over the rest of the campaign, however, the Bomber defense proved to be the best north of the 49th, and they have the silverware to show for it.

Here's one more fact that might shake a few people: Since a memorable night in 1954, when the Stamps sandbagged Winnipeg 41-0, the two clubs have met 20 times and only once have the Red and White scored more than 20 points, that exception occurred on October 20, 1956, when Ronnie and Harvey Knox quarterbacked the club to a 25-17 triumph in the Manitoba capital.

This is a new deal now, fellows, how about giving the defense a fair shake?

INTERESTING SEASON AHEAD

By RAY GUAY
(Sports Editor, Albertan)

It's a brand new football season but the talk around town (any Western Conference centre) holds much the same flavor as that used in 1958.

Winnipeg, for instance, has the goods, nothing but confidence and nothing short of the Grey Cup would satisfy the faithfuls.

Edmonton still has Jackie Parker and a lot of other useful help which make the Eskimos still a tough team to beat on any given night.

Vancouver: The talk around the coast has, in the past, been much stronger than the Lions on the field, as in the past, this is THE YEAR.

And it's quite a few years since Saskatchewan Roughriders haven't been pitied by the rest of the circuit, sometimes with reason, most often not.

And, of course, our dear ol' Cowtown wouldn't feel right about the impending season without at least one (short-lived) rumor that someone—preferably the head coach—is about to be replaced.

The experts and the guessperts have it figured out that this campaign is an open book for the first two places in the standing and just about the only reason we're going through a 16-game schedule is to decide the third position.

It's reasonable to assume that, unless something drastic comes about in the next few weeks, Winnipeg and Edmonton will assume the top positions but even the most blase of guessperts is somewhat at a loss to come up with the third place club.

Leaving the others to their hopes, or miseries, local enthusiasts may well find their color-bearers to be something to cheer about this year.

A football club, like anything else, is froth with uncertainty and this applies toStampeders as well as any other clubs in the conference.

There are a lot of known entities on this edition of the club but there are also some unknown ones.

The big hope of everyone is that Joe Kapp will materialize into the all-around quarterback which the club has been looking for for some time.

Quarterbacking, on an even keel with the rest of the circuit, has been the main headache in the city and the hope is strong that the chase is now over. While on Kapp rests the main hope, Otis Douglas and company are also looking to Jack Kemp to help the club a great deal.

Stampeders have much the same basic squad as last season, a club which started well but tailed off badly. Much has been added to the basic elements, even to the coaching. The foundation is much sounder than it was 12 months ago and while Stampeders cannot boast of Winnipeg's depth, they're still sound enough.

Injuries may play an extremely important part in this campaign. The Bombers, with their depth, will be able to continue at top speed even with injuries to some of the more notable players but none of the other clubs can boast of a similar situation. All of them, including Stampeders, could see their fondest hopes fly through the window with injuries to key personnel.

But, no matter what happens between now and late October, it promises to be interesting.

WINNIPEG BIOGRAPHIES

HEAD COACH HARRY, PETER (BUD) GRANT

Bud was born in Superior, Wisconsin, on May 20, 1927. His ambition early in life, was to become a proficient athlete, with the ultimate aim of becoming a coach. While in High School, he excelled in baseball, football and basketball. Out of High School, he joined the Navy and served one year. Selecting the University of Minnesota because of its proximity to his home town, Bud worked his way through college. A pitcher in baseball, and end in football and a forward in basketball, Bud excelled in all sports. On graduating from university, he played two seasons with the Minneapolis Lakers Professional Basketball Team, which won the World's championship. Considering himself too small for the giant-size basketball players, he switched to football. Drafted by Philadelphia as their No. 1 draft choice in 1950, he played defensive end in his first year. Wishing to come to Winnipeg, he refused to sign a new contract, merely playing out his option. Playing as offensive end, he was second in the league in passes caught. Selected to play in the All Professional Bowl Game, he was unable to do so as he refused to sign his new contract. In 1951 he was honored by the University of Minnesota by being selected their "Athlete of the Half-Century". Coming to Winnipeg in 1953, he led the W.I.F.U. in pass receiving in 1953, 1954 and 1956, and was also selected to the All Star Team in those years. A surprise selection as coach in 1957, despite the fact that he had no previous coaching experience, he has fully lived up to expectations. An astute, quiet and dedicated coach, the Winnipeg team has represented the West in the Grey Cup Classic in the two years that Bud has been at the helm, winning it in 1958. A year-round resident, Bud, his wife Pat and their four children live in the Tuxedo suburb of Winnipeg.

ASSISTANT COACH JOE, JOHN ZALESKI

Joe was born in Kensington, Pa., on March 19, 1927. Entering the University of Dayton, at Dayton, Ohio, Joe graduated in 1951 with a B.Sc. of education degree. Coming to Winnipeg in 1952, he shared the quarter-backing chore with Jack Jacobs for three years. In 1955, he played for the Montreal Alouettes. The 1956 and 1957 seasons were spent as coach of the Sarnia Golden Bears of the O.R.F.U. Coming back to Winnipeg in 1958, Joe has done an excellent job of coaching the backfield. A marine for two years, Joe saw action in the Pacific. A likeable individual, his pleasing personality, fine sense of humour and his ability to get along have made him a favourite with all. A sales representative for Calvert's in the off-season, Joe is the proud father of three daughters.

ASSISTANT COACH JOHN JOSEPH MICHELS

John was born in Philadelphia on February 15, 1931. He attended Catholic School in Philadelphia and played guard in football. He attended the University of Tennessee from 1949 to 1953, earning three letters. While at the University, he captained the team in 1952, played in the Cotton Bowl in 1951 and 1953, in the Sugar Bowl in 1952, in the Hula Bowl in 1953 and on the College All Star team in 1953. He was named to the All-South Eastern Conference All Star team in 1951 and 1952 and was named the Outstanding Blocker in the South Eastern Conference in 1952. He was also All American in 1952. Joining the Philadelphia Eagles in 1953, he played guard. He was drafted into the army after that season and served as 1st Lieut. in the U.S. Army Transportation Corps. Rejoining the Eagles in 1956, he was one of their final cuts that season. Coming to Winnipeg in 1957, he gained the respect of all as a player, with his heady play and natural ability. Feeling his forte lay in the coaching field, John left the team, and in 1958, was a line coach at Texas A. & M. With Wayne Robinson leaving to become head coach at Vancouver, Bud Grant's choice as a successor was Michels. A dedicated coach, the chore of coaching the line is in capable hands. John is a family man with two boys and a girl.

MANAGER JAMES A. AUSLEY

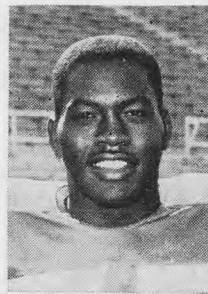

Jim was born in Waco, Texas, 35 years ago. A graduate of the University of Houston, he acquired a B.Sc. degree, and spent 4 years as trainer there. Coming to Canada in 1953, Jim's ability and knowledge has served the Bombers well. With the retirement of Bill Boivin in 1957, Jim took over the additional duties of manager of the club. This year, as full-time manager, Jim is working harder than ever. He is a permanent resident of Winnipeg now, and the father of a son and daughter.

TRAINER GORDON MACKIE

Gordie, born in 1922, is a local boy and took his highschooling at Kelvin High School, and attended University at Montreal. It was during his Navy Service (1940-1945) that Gordie became a boxer, and subsequently became interested in the training of athletes. As a professional boxer, he won eight, drew two and lost two. His service credits enabled him to take a Physio-Therapy Course in Montreal, and he received his degree in 1949. Back in Winnipeg in 1950, he opened a Health Club and became a boxing and wrestling promotor. In 1953 and 1954, he was assistant trainer at the American Military Academy at West Point. Appointed Canada's boxing coach at the 1954 British Empire Games, he was unable to assume these duties due to prior commitments. In 1955, he became trainer for the Winnipeg Warriors hockey team and the Winnipeg Goldeyes Baseball team. In addition to these duties, he is now also the trainer for the Bombers. A capable person, he is liked by all and has the confidence of the players. Gordie is married, and has a family of four, three girls and a boy.

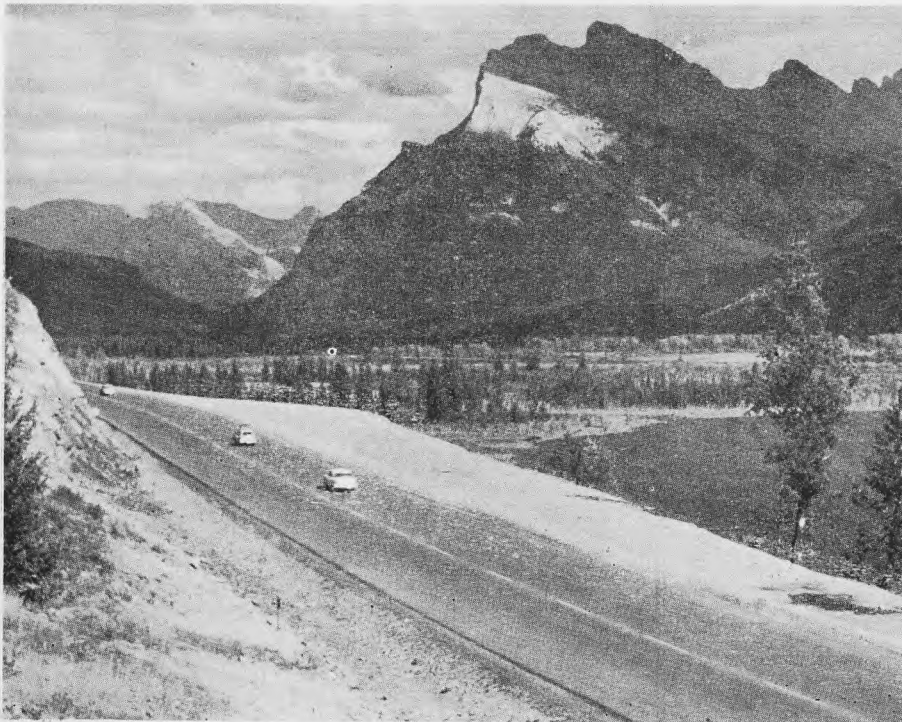

W.I.F.U. All Star team as offensive end. He set a new W.I.F.U. record—107 yards—for the pass and run, for a T.D.

PLOEN. An Iowan who attended the State University of Iowa, he majored in Civil Engineering and earned three letters. EQUIPMENT MANAGER

ROBERT JONES

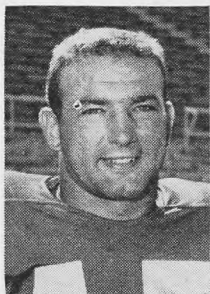

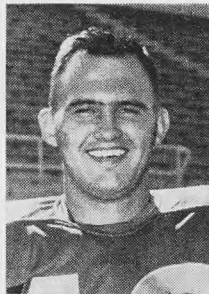

Bob, or Jonesey as he is known, has more active service with the club than any other individual. His service dates back to 1939, when he was water boy. In 1941 he took over as equipment manager. He is aided and abetted by Russ Lacomby, "Pop" Varnes and Ken Kovacks.

JAMES. A Kelvin graduate, he made the jump to Pro Football from High School. A real veteran at 25, this will be his seventh season with the Bombers. A tough full back and prolific scorer, he suffered a double-fracture last year on a routine play and was out for a good portion of the season. Is expected to reach his past form. Also a hockey player of note.

VAN PELT. A University of Michigan grad, Jim was born in Chicago. A Business Admin. Grad, he was drafted 5th by the Washington Redskins. Played in the Senior Bowl. An injury to Kenny Ploen last year gave him his break and he led the team the rest of the season, and did a masterful job in the Grey Cup game. He holds the Grey Cup scoring record with 22 points.

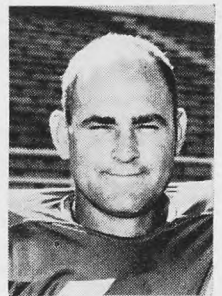

VARONE. An All American in his senior High School year, John went to the University of Miami. There he set several team records. Drafted 4th by the San Francisco 49er's. A tough linebacker and a good blocker on offense.

LEWIS. Known in the league as "Lincoln Locomotive" 29 is one of the hardest runners in the league. A crowd pleaser, Leo is a favourite with the fans and always gives his all. He will become a veterinarian soon. He has the respect of his own team-mates as well as those of the opposing teams. Selected W.I.F.U. All Star Halfback last year.

TINSLEY. A Texan by birth, but a Canadian by adoption, Buddy was born in Damon. While at Baylor, he was team captain. Picked All South-West Conference and received All American Honorable Mention. A "Pro" when he came to Winnipeg, Buddy must be ranked with the all-time greats of the West. A perennial All Star, Buddy is the Team's Captain. His wife Hazel, was instrumental in organizing the Bomb-erettes. A fan favourite, Buddy is a car salesman for Selkirk Motors.

THE '59 EDITION

By ED WHALEN
(Sports Director CHCT-TV)

Here we go again—another session of W.I.F.U. warfare! Yours truly would like one innovation this season — a lack of controversy in the Stampeder picture. This business of trouble year in and year out leaves much to be desired. We're not asking for the moon — merely a good, hard fighting aggregation that will do justice to the name of Calgary.

This is my fifth football season here and never in all that time have we run into such a wide divergence of opinion about the Stampeders. Many are exceedingly pessimistic and are forecasting all sorts of player shufflings and coach firings. We hope the latter is not true but quite frankly we just don't know at this writing. The material seems to be there—whether Coach Douglas and his consorts will make it jell remains to be seen.

The opposing Winnipeg Blue Bombers, here tonight, rate as shoo-ins for another title. If Calgary can contain this Winnipeg power, the Stamps' picture will look rosy. We think the Cowboys could surprise the lofty Manitobans. The addition of men like Opie Bandy, Don Stone, Ron Morris, Joe Kapp, Bill McKenna and Earl Lunsford make (on paper at least) this a much more formidable ball club on the attack than at any time in the past five years. We're particularly thrilled with the return of "Earthquake" Lunsford. After two years in the Army with little or no football, we feared that he might have lost his touch. However, going both ways, he looks like the Tiger he was in 1956—and what a football player he was then.

But now, let's settle back and watch the Blue and Gold struggle with the Red and White. Oh—just before we sign off—if we sneak this in quickly perhaps you won't refer back to it around about next November. Our choices for the order of finish this year: Winnipeg first, Calgary second, Edmonton third (still think this club is on the skids), Vancouver fourth and Saskatchewan dead last. Our reason for picking Calgary 'way up there is not sheer patriotism but merely the fact that on the over-all picture we think the Stamps have better material. If they get better coaching they should make it!

OTIS DOUGLAS
HEAD COACH

OTIS W. DOUGLAS, JR., Head Coach

Otis was born in Readville, Virginia, one of a family of ten. He graduated in Physical Education from the College of William and Mary in Williamsburg, Virginia, and played guard and tackle in his college football days.

After receiving a Doctorate degree in Education and Masters in Arts, he was assistant coach at his Alma Mater for seven years. From there he went to the University of Akron, serving as Athletic Director until 1942.

For the next three years, Otis was in the Navy where he coached with Jim Tatum and played at Jacksonville Naval Air Station. He played three years with the Philadelphia Eagles who won the World Championship in 1948-49. From here, his coaching duties took him to Drexel Tech., University of Arkansas (in the tough South-West Conference), Baltimore Colts and the Chicago Cardinals where he was defensive coach and then to Villanova University. He left Villanova during the 1956 season to accept the Head Coaching job with the Stampeders.

Coach Douglas is married and has two children, Eleanor, 11, and Otis, Jr., 16 years of age. Their home is in Hague, Virginia, where such businesses as Pheasant and Oyster farming and running a resort keep him busy in the off-season. A great asset to these careers is his flying ability as he has been an aviator for ten years.

BERNIE WITUCKI, Assistant Coach

Bernie was born in South Bend, Indiana, graduated from high school, and attended Notre Dame University for two years. He then transferred to George Washington University, where he graduated in 1935.

He coached at Washington High School in South Bend for eight years, and during that time the school won the State Championship three times, 1937, 1939 and 1941. Bernie then enlisted in the U.S. Navy in 1943, and was a physical instructor for three years. Upon discharge, he became assistant coach of the now defunct Chicago Rockets in the All America Conference. His coaching duties continued at Tulsa University, and he remained with them for four years and during that time developed such outstanding linemen as Kay Vaughn, Ottawa Roughrider and Schenley Award Winner, and All-America Marvin Matuszak, who is currently with the Green Bay Packers. Bernie was Head Coach at Tulsa in 1953 and 1954, and then joined Notre Dame University's coaching staff in 1955. He left Notre Dame in the spring of this year to accept the position of line coach with the Stampeders.

FRANK FILCHOCK, Backfield Coach

Frank was born in Crucible, Pennsylvania, and graduated from Indiana University. He turned professional with the Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Football League, and was traded to the Washington Redskins, then played with the New York Giants, spending six years with the National Football League. In 1947, Frank moved to Canada to play with the Hamilton Tiger Cats, and in 1949 with the Montreal Alouettes, he quarterbacked the squad to a Grey Cup victory over the Stampeders. In 1950 he moved to the Edmonton Eskimos as a player and coach and stayed in Edmonton until the end of the 1952 season. From 1953 to 1957, he signed on as coach of the Regina Roughriders. He was coach of the Sarnia Golden Bears of the O.R.F.U. in 1958, and at the end of the 1958 season, was contacted by the Stampeders. Coach Filchock is married, and he and his family are making their home in Calgary.

STARS FOR 1959??

By ERIC BISHOP
(Sports Director CFAC)

Donato Antonio Luzzi Jr., better known as plain Don to his Stam-peder teammates, made it real big in his first year of pro ball last semester. In fact, the compact 240-pound tackle was named Canada's most outstanding lineman of the year, which was as "big" as one could make it.

It's really exceptional for a first year man in the Canadian loops to grab the top Schenley Award. Many come close, but usually they have to be around at least one season before reaching the top plateau.

This year, as is always the case, some really fine new prospects are on the scene here in the West and conceivably one or two could prove to be THE outstanding player when final tabulations are posted in late November.

Let's now check over some of the new grid men who, after exhibition outings, appear to have it made.

Tonight's visitors have few new faces gracing their roster. But after all the "bad guy's" this evening are the Canadian champions and hence didn't have to do much adjusting. However, one of the Blue Bombers new linemen, 'tis said, is really something. I refer to centre-linebacker Burr Davis from down University of Houston way.

Meanwhile, in Regina the Rough Rider faithful figure tackle Jim Marshall, an All-American from Ohio State, will prove to be the new Martin Ruby. Marshall actually was the key figure in the deal that sent Frank Tripucka to Ottawa for three players and cash. Also, George Terlep's Roughies have the Texas hand, end Menan Schriever around. This gent was a top man for two years in Big Four competition and came West when Cookie Gilchrist was shipped to the Toronto Argonauts.

In the Eskimo Igloo Parker-Bright and Walker-Nelson are still the big wheels. Of the newcomers end-corner linebacking Tommy Joe Coffey appears the best. Coffey, who will handle the kick-off and field goal chores, hails from West Texas State.

Of course, Vancouver grid addicts are already in love with two former Iowa stars. Randy Duncan, the passing quarterback must be something to earn all the loot he reportedly will get for two years of ball. And right half Willie Fleming must also be really nifty to crack big time football with only two years of college ball behind him.

Meanwhile back here at the ranch the Stam-peders have some good looking prospects like Donnie Stone, Ronnie Morris and Opie Bandy. However, I still think (with fingers crossed that this isn't the kiss of death) that Cowboy q.b. Joe Kapp will be the most exciting newcomer in the entire circuit.

VANCOUVER NEXT!

By GORDE HUNTER

(Herald Sports Editor)

When the Vancouver Lions come calling next at Mewata Stadium, more than their uniforms will bear the new look.

With Michigan-style helmets, black jerseys with orange numerals and silver pants, the Leos are easily the fashion plates of the Western Conference.

This is the minor change.

The major change has to be Wayne Robinson and Willie Fleming and Randy Duncan and Chuck Diamond, etc., etc.

Robinson, possibly the closest thing to a full-blown Simon Legree among head coaches in Canada, has not at any time made rash promises to Lion fans. But Robbie is a stickler for perfection, a bug on physical fitness and he acquired the winning taste while with the Blue Bombers the past two seasons.

Duncan, the Rose Bowl hero from Iowa, was the subject of probably the biggest buildup of the year in Canadian football. However, this passing wizard hasn't exactly made the Lion squad as yet, for the veteran Al Dorow likes football, likes Vancouver and likes money. Dorow will not be shoved aside without a king-sized scuffle.

Calgary manager, Jim Finks, on learning the Leos had signed Fleming, who had only completed his sophomore season at Iowa, admitted Willie might be a good one.

"But if sophomores can make our league," Jeems said, "then it's time for all of us to pack our bags."

Mr. Herb Capozzi, grape grower, linguist and Lion manager, is waiting patiently to insert the needle.

"If Willie makes good, and he will," stated Capozzi in Vancouver recently, "I think it fitting we send Mr. Finks a new travelling bag. Then he can pack in style."

My lone glimpse of Fleming (in an exhibition game against Ottawa) was enough to sell me on this 20-year-old's ability. He can fly, can catch passes, punts and kickoffs and while not a big man, has power. He's bound to make mistakes, but on the other hand, he's just as bound to be a top back in the very near future.

Paul Cameron will cavort as an end (and a good one), By Bailey is still around and Ed Vereb appears to have regained the form that made him a terror two years ago.

Robinson has scrapped the Crowe-style offence and is using the Iowa formation aped so ably by Bud Grant and the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Actually, if you watch the Bombers tonight, you'll see the same type attack (albeit not as strong) as the Leos will use.

The Lions have been in the league since 1954 and have never finished better than fourth. The fans, however, have supported them in ever increasing numbers and Vancouver, along with Montreal, has to be the most rabid football city in Canada. They sell more season tickets (15,000) than the Stampeders average per game.

And they still haven't won anything.

Empire Stadium will have to add a third again as many seats if Robinson, or any future coach, can give the Lions a winner. They'd knock down the gates to get in.

No one should take them lightly—including the Stampeders.

ONCE OVER

By JOHN B. KENNEDY
(Sports Director CKXL)

What does the future hold for the Calgary Stampeder Football Club? That question is a difficult one to answer because nobody but nobody is able to predict the future of the "Famous Four" Calgary team. It is still too premature to assess the club with any accuracy but from this point in the schedule I would say the future looks fairly bright, with a few prominent hazy spots. Backing up the bright outlook is the fact that the club has more balance than they had last year and the fact that the Stamps have finally found a capable trigger man in Joe Kapp from the University of California who can fling and run that ball with authority. This is Joe's initial taste of Canadian football and we feel that with a few more games under his belt he will acquire the confidence and supreme leadership of a seasoned and competent quarterback.

Those hazy spots mentioned earlier are caused by the "attitude" of the club. If the club can keep the player relations on a fairly high pedestal and the squad is a happy one there is no reason at all why they cannot catch that last playoff spot, for man for man they compare with most of the other clubs in the Western Conference. Present indications seem to point to a "three-an-two situation" as far as Coach Otis Douglas is concerned, for this year the club under the leadership of that friendly gent from Virginia must be a contender or the executives may be going on a shopping spree in the near future. However, let's look on the bright side of the picture and hope that the Silver Fox of football builds a winner.

As far as the other clubs are concerned we think the Winnipeg Blue Bombers will again be the team to beat for they are just about standing pat as far as their personnel is concerned and Coach Bud Grant would like to prove his point by coming up with a winner this time around too. We saw the Saskatchewan Roughriders work out in Regina while on an Eastern jaunt and to say the least they are rough. Perhaps if they acquire a topnotch trigger man they might smoothen themselves out a little. The B.C. Lions look better than last year for their personnel list looks impressive but the question is, can they work together as a cohesive unit? Since the Eskimos were sort of left in the cold with the departure of Sammy Lyle and Eagle Keys will have to prove his worth as a coach. We feel that the Eagle will make the transition successfully . . . So now I ask you, what does the future hold for the Calgary Stampeders?

WHEATIES
"Breakfast of Champions!"

CALGARY Vs. WINNIPEG

By HENRY VINEY
(Sports Director, CFCN)

Tonight marks Calgary's first home game of the season—they are playing host to the Grey Cup Champion Winnipeg Blue Bombers—who, like the Stampeders, have already played one game on the road. The Blue Bombers are the Champions despite their defeat at the hands of the Hamilton Tiger Cats in a pre-season exhibition game. They have been unanimously picked by the so-called experts to finish in first place in the Western Division of the Canadian Football League. The few weak spots they had last year are reportedly strengthened this time around. So let's take a look at some of the new players who will be on view at Mewata Stadium for the first time.

Burr Davis from the University of Houston and Fred Way from North Texas State may be at centre. Buddy Allison of the University of Mississippi who played with the Bombers in 1956—then served a hitch in the United States airforce—is back and is expected to regain his place at guard.

The Bombers have a new tackle—Free Cole from Maryland—and have obtained Bob Hantala, an ex-San Francisco 49'er, from the B.C. Lions.

One of the most talked about players is Dave Kocourek, who is trying out for end, if he makes it Ernie Pitts may be cut.

A half back by the name of Carver (Mercury) Shannon is said to be as fast as Leo Lewis and some say just as good—if he is, the opposition is in for plenty of trouble this year. Shannon hails, like another newcomer at half back—Lane Jenkins—from Southern Illinois.

Hold over imports on the Winnipeg club—some of which may have been cut between the time this article was prepared and tonight—include: Centre, Garland Warren from North Texas State. Guards: Herb Gray, who is considered the best in the Conference, Dave Burkholder from Minnesota and tackle: Frank Rigney from Iowa. Ernie Pitts will have to work to stay with the club—in view of the fact the Bombers have brought in two or three new and highly regarded ends.

Jim Van Pelt—who quarterback the club in the Grey Cup final and who was injured in the Hamilton game—may be sidelined in favor of Kenney Ploen, but the combination of Van Pelt and Ploen gives the Bombers the best one-two quarterback combination in the West if not all of Canada.

Leo Lewis, Charlie Shepherd and John Varone, cut at the import deadline last year, are all back and Shepherd and Lewis are lead pipe cinches to make the club, while Varone may be in the doubtful category.

Normally we refer to the playing numbers (particularly of the new imports) but in this case it is not possible—the reason—this year there has been a change in the numbering system—but the clubs have been given one year in which to make the change—some have ordered new uniforms with new numbers, such as Edmonton, whose Jackie Parker used to be number 91 and is now 11, but just as good as ever.

Only when the Winnipeg club take the field tonight will we know whether the Blue Bombers numbering system has been changed—but check the new Bombers in your program and decide for yourself whether Bud Grant has even better material this year than last, when all he did was win the Grey Cup.

The Stampeders will have some new imports in action tonight too, but any Calgary fan worthy of the name has long since become familiar, not only with their names, but their playing numbers and positions.
